

Kailua-Kona vicinity. HONOKOHAU SETTLEMENT, Honokohau Bay, N of Kailua-Kona, Prehistoric-1920. Habitation site containing 50 house sites, 4 temples, 3 fish ponds, a holua (toboggan slide), and numerous tombs and petroglyphs. Notable is Makaopio, a fisherman temple. Once ideal landing area for canoes, inhabited until 1920 when deserted due to limited accessibility. Investigated by the Bishop Museum, 1961. Multiple public/private; parts not accessible to the public: NHL.